Critical documents

It is important to read/retain the following documents and keep them in a safe and convenient place:

- this document;
- your current certificate of insurance;
- any endorsements.

Remember to regularly review your insurance policy, particularly at renewal to ensure your insurance policy provides the cover that you currently need.

Claims Made

Automatic Extension 2 - Indemnifiable Fines and Penalties and Optional Extension 4 - Retroactive Liability operate on a 'claims made' basis, which means that you are covered under these sections for:

1. claims made against you during the period of insurance and notified to us during the period of cover, or during an extended notification period of 30 days, provided you were not aware at any time prior to the commencement of the period of insurance of any circumstances which could lead to the claim being made against you; and
2. claims made against you after the period of insurance has expired as a result of circumstances you first became aware of during the period of insurance, provided you have notified us in writing before the expiry of the period of insurance of such known circumstances.

The cover provided is in respect of claims arising out of acts, errors, omissions, conduct, events or circumstances that occur after any retroactive date shown in the certificate of insurance and notified to us during the period of insurance.

After expiry of the policy and the extended notification period, no new claim can be made or circumstances notified under the policy even though the event giving rise to the claim may have occurred during the period of insurance, except where allowed by law.

Engagement of Third Parties (contractors/subcontractors)

Where engaging third parties (contractors/subcontractors) to perform activities on your behalf, those third parties must carry their own insurance. As part of your risk management, we recommend you sight the certificate of currency as proof this cover is in place. A valid certificate of currency needs to display the Insurer's name, the Policy Number, the Period of Insurance and the Limit of Liability.

Retention of Documents

IMPORTANT: a special note relating to record keeping.

Incidents which may be claimable under the policy sometimes only come to light after a long period of time, in some cases many years.

The long-term security of relevant documents including your Risk Management Procedures, any employment records and your Liability Insurance policy and endorsements and the certificate of Insurance can be of crucial importance should allegations arise in future years. All such documents should be securely retained for many years to ensure that they are available in the event of any allegations arising. (We recommend a period of 50 years).

The individuals mentioned in the documents should be notified that information about them may be held for a long period of time as part of a client protection risk management programme. This may be best handled by use of a general statement in employment contracts and your published customer information literature.

In addition, storage provisions for all such documents should be arranged in the event the organisation ceases operations. Generally acceptable methods of storage in these circumstances would be at the office of a solicitor, accountant or at a professional secure storage company.

Duty of disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with us, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose these matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance. Each person named as an insured has the same duty.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us;
- that is of common knowledge;

- that we know or, in the ordinary course of our operations, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the policy in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

After the policy is entered into, ongoing disclosure obligations apply if the risk insured is increased in a significant way. See General Conditions applicable to the policy for details.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

This insurance policy has provision for payment of Goods and Services Tax:

- by you in relation to premiums;
- by us in relation to claims.

The contract between you and Ansvar Insurance

In consideration of payment of your premium, we will insure you under this policy, and as shown in your certificate of insurance. Your insurance commences from the time we accept your proposal or variation and premium and concludes at 4.00pm local standard time on the dates shown in the certificate of insurance.

If the terms of this policy are not observed, cover may be reduced or cancelled.

Authorisation clause

The person(s) authorised to accept this policy of insurance on behalf of you and your officials and other persons or entities insured by this policy, agrees to act on their behalf with respect to the giving and receiving of any notice of cancellation, the payment of premiums, the receiving of any return premiums that may become due and the acceptance of endorsements or other notices.

Cancellation

You may cancel this policy at any time by notifying us in writing. You may be required to pay a cancellation fee if you cancel this policy mid-term, unless cancellation occurs within 21 days of its commencement.

We can cancel this policy in accordance with the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). We will be entitled to retain premium for the period during which this policy has been in force.

We may also retain reasonable administrative costs related to the acquisition and termination of the policy and any government taxes or duties we cannot recover.

In the event that you have made a claim under this policy and we have paid or agreed to pay any part of the claim under this policy, no premium will be refunded.

Changes to risk insured

You must tell us as soon as possible of any changes to your operations or products which significantly or materially increase the risk insured by this policy (including the unoccupancy of any building used in connection with your operations for more than 60 consecutive days).

We will advise you in writing if we agree to accept the material changes and you must pay any additional premium we may require.

If you do not tell us of any material changes, or if we do not agree to accept the material changes, or if you do not pay us any additional premium we require, then in all such cases, we will not be liable to indemnify you for any liability to pay compensation, caused by or contributed to by the material changes.

Defence costs

We agree that in relation to any claim for which indemnity may be available under this policy,

- where indemnity has been confirmed in writing by us, and subject to any independent review or assessment we may require, we will meet the reasonable defence costs as they are incurred;
- where indemnity has been confirmed in writing by us we retain the sole and absolute right to take over and conduct the defence and settlement of the claim;
- where we have not confirmed indemnity and we elect to take over and conduct the defence or settlement of any claim while reserving our rights on indemnity under this policy, we will pay reasonable defence costs to which we have consented as they are incurred;

- where we have not confirmed indemnity and we elect not to take over conduct of the defence or settlement of any claim, we will pay reasonable defence costs which have been incurred at our direction.

Provided always that advancement of defence costs is at our sole and absolute discretion, and

- in the event that the claim is withdrawn or that indemnity under this policy is subsequently withdrawn or denied, we shall cease to advance defence costs; and
- we reserve the right to recover any defence costs paid by us under this policy from you or the insured person severally according to the respective interests, in the event and to the extent that it is subsequently established by judgment or other final adjudication, that there was no entitlement to indemnity under this policy.

Estate and legal representatives

This policy will provide cover for the estate or legal representatives of any natural person insured under this policy in the event of their death or legal incapacity, to the extent to which such person would have been entitled to indemnity under this policy had such death or legal incapacity not occurred and provided always that such estate and legal representatives shall observe and be subject to all the terms of this policy so far as they can apply.

Excess

The excess payable by you in respect of each and every claim under this policy is shown in the certificate of insurance or any endorsement and will be deducted from any compensation which you are legally liable to pay before applying any limit of liability under this policy.

The excess also applies to any amount expended by us for defence costs.

Additional excesses may be payable for the following types of claims as detail in the certificate of insurance.

- personal injury claims for contractors/subcontractors
- personal injury claims for volunteers
- others as applied by us

Goods and Services Tax

You must inform us of the extent to which you are entitled to an Input Tax Credit (ITC) for the premium each time that a claim is made under this policy. No payment will be made to you for any GST liability that you may acquire on the settlement of a claim if you have not informed us of your entitlement or correct entitlement to an ITC.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this policy, our liability in respect of a claim under this policy will be calculated taking into account any Input Tax Credit (ITC) to which you are entitled for any acquisition relevant to a claim, or to which you would have been entitled if you were to have made the relevant acquisition.

If the limit of liability is not sufficient to cover your loss, we will only pay GST (less any relevant ITC) that relates to our proportion of your loss. We will pay the GST amount in addition to the limit of liability, sub limit of liability or any sum insured.

For the purposes of this General condition, 'GST', 'ITC', 'acquisition' and 'supply' have the meaning given in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.

Headings

In this policy, unless the context otherwise requires, headings are merely descriptive and not to aid interpretation.

Jurisdiction

This policy shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Australia. Any dispute shall be resolved in accordance with the laws of Australia.

Monthly installments

You may pay your premium by monthly instalments direct from a financial institution or from your credit card. You should note that this may incur an additional cost. However, if any monthly instalment is dishonoured by your financial institution this policy may not operate. We may refuse to pay a claim in whole or in part if, at the date of a loss or claim, any monthly instalment has remained unpaid for at least 14 days, unless we have agreed otherwise in writing.

If we settle your claim by paying the full limit of liability of this policy, we will deduct any outstanding instalments from the amount we pay on your behalf.

Should the financial institution holding your account return or dishonour a direct debit payment due to lack of funds in your account, we will charge you for any direct or indirect costs which we incur arising from the payment being returned or dishonoured.

Non accumulation

Where a party insured under this policy is also entitled to indemnity under another insurance policy issued by us, the respective limits of liability of the policies shall not be increased by virtue of the existence of such other insurances and, in the event of a claim arising, our maximum limit of liability shall be equivalent to the highest limit of liability under the respective policies.

Precautions by you

You are required to:

- ensure your location(s) that are not being used or occupied for extended periods of time are kept secured and are maintained in a reasonable condition of upkeep;
- take all reasonable precautions to prevent loss, damage or injury to third parties and their property;

Service of legal process

You may effect service of any legal process on us in connection with this policy by delivering that process by hand or by post to the address for service stated in the certificate of insurance and such service shall be deemed to be personal service upon us.

Third party interests

You cannot transfer interests in this policy without our written consent.

All persons entitled to any benefit under this policy are bound by the terms of this policy.

We insure those interests you notify to us when we issue cover or which are notified to us during the currency of this policy and which we agree to insure or which are imposed by law.

Claims conditions applicable to this policy

The following conditions (claims conditions) apply to all sections of this policy.

Your responsibility when making a claim

Following any event which results in personal injury, property damage or advertising injury, and which may or is likely to give rise to a claim under this policy, it is your responsibility to advise us by telephone, email, internet, letter or in person as soon as reasonably possible but no later than 30 days after this occurs and promptly provide any information we request.

A claim form may be sent to you to provide the information we may require. You must complete and return this form promptly. Alternatively, we may appoint a loss adjuster, lawyer or investigator to make enquiries on our behalf and you must co-operate fully with any such appointee.

Letters of demand, other proceedings

You must forward to us every letter of demand, writ, summons, or legal process of any description immediately upon receipt or service thereof and must immediately inform us in writing of any prosecution, inquest or fatal accident inquiry of which you are given notice.

You are required at your expense:

- to take all reasonable steps to prevent or minimise any personal injury, property damage, or advertising injury or from any other liability to pay compensation covered by this policy and to prevent further claims arising out of the same or similar conditions;
- to use your best endeavours to preserve and make available for our testing and inspection any of your property, products, appliances, plant, machines, equipment, computers, files, notes, memoranda, or other documents or any other things which might prove necessary or useful by way of evidence in any way connected with any claim; and
- so far as may be reasonably practicable, with due regard to safety, to permit no alteration or repair to any building, fencing, machinery, furnishings, fittings, appliances or plant without our consent.

In the event of a dispute between us and you, or between us and any official about whether legal proceedings should be contested, a senior counsel (mutually agreed upon by us and you or the official or, in default of such agreement, selected by the chairperson or president of the local Bar Council) will be retained to advise on whether such proceedings should be contested. In formulating his or her advice, senior counsel shall take into consideration the economics of the matter, having regard to the damages and costs which are likely to be recovered by the plaintiff, the likely defence costs and the prospects of you or the official successfully defending the action.

The costs of such senior counsel's opinion shall, for the purpose of this section, be regarded as part of the defence costs. In the event that counsel advises that, having regard to all the circumstances, the matter should not be contested but settled within certain limits which, in senior counsel's opinion, are reasonable, then you or the official shall not object to any such settlement and shall co-operate with us to effect such settlement in accordance with this policy.

Settlement of claims

We may take legal action in your name against any person, other than any person entitled to cover under this policy, to recover any payment which we have made or may make to you or on your behalf under this policy whether or not we have fully indemnified you for the loss or damage which gave rise to the claim. We will be entitled to conduct and settle any claim brought in your name. You must give us all information and assistance that we may require in conducting or settling any such claim.

We shall be entitled to attend any inquest or fatal accident inquiry in respect of which there may arise any claim under this policy.

If you refuse to consent to any settlement recommended by us and elect to contest or continue any legal proceedings in connection therewith, our liability for the claim shall not exceed the amount for which the claim could have been settled, less the applicable excess, plus costs and expenses incurred with our prior consent up to the date of such refusal.

If at the time any claim arises under this policy, there is other insurance in force covering the same liability, you must promptly notify us of the full details of such other insurance, including the identity of the insurer and the policy number, and such further information as we may reasonably require.

Fraudulent claims

As a protection for all insurance policyholders, we will take legal action against any person who makes a fraudulent claim.
